The announcement is made by USAopoly's President and CEO, John M. Davis, and Czech Games Edition's CEO and Founder, Petr Murmak.

"We have one of the strongest licensing departments in gaming, and we recognized that Codenames was perfect for pairing with some of our great licenses. About Czech Games Edition (the Maker of Codenames)

Czech Games is a group of people who love board games and enjoy creating entertainment for genuine players.

Back in 2006, a small team worked with Vlaada Chvátil to create the first edition of Through the Ages. After its huge success at the Spiel in Essen—the biggest European Game Fair—Czech Games Edition was founded.

Since then, CGE has published more than 30 games (many well-known, award-winning games such as Through the Ages, Space Alert, and Tzolk'in: The Mayan Calendar, Galaxy Trucker, Codenames, and more).

CGE is focused on publishing games by Czech and Slovak designers, such as Vlaada Chvátil, Vladimír Suchý and Matuš Kotry, but they have also cooperated with designers from Croatia (Filip Neduk) and Italy (Daniele Tascini, Simone Luciani).

Fans can find walkthroughs of many CGE games on Paul Grogan's Gaming Rules! YouTube channel. A demoing machine, Paul has represented CGE at conventions for many years. CGE's American translator, Jason A. Holt, also writes fantasy novels. He has worked on all our games, including Alchemists, which won the 2015 Essener Feder prize for best rulebook. Most of Czech Games' high quality components are manufactured and printed in Europe and, in particular, the Czech Republic.

Czech Games Edition has its own in house digital department. Galaxy Trucker was the first digital implementation of a CGE game. Vlaada Chvátil works closely with the developers to bring unparalleled board gaming to digital platforms with upcoming adaptations of Through the Ages and award winning Codenames. Petr Murmak, CEO of Czech Games Edition, said the company chose to develop the implementation of CGE games in house in order to ensure they are of the highest quality.
